Communication and Language	Generally focus on an activity of their own choice and find it difficult to be directed by an adult Listen to other people's talk with interest but can easily be distracted by other things Start to develop conversation, often jumping from topic to topic Develop pretend play Listen to simple stories and understand what is happening, with the help of the pictures Understand simple questions about 'who', 'what' and where Indi it difficult to pay attention to more than one thing at a time. Understand a question or instruction that has two parts, such as "Get your coat and wait at the door". Use a wider range of vocabulary. Sing a large repertoire of songs. New carpet rules Talking time about different family arrangements Similarities and differences Vocalise likes and dislikes Vocalise feelings WellComm Assessments
Personal, Social and Emotional Development	Find ways of managing transition, for example from their parent to their key person Thrive as they develop self-assurance Look back as they walk away from their key person Play with increasing confidence on their own and with other children Begin to show effortful control. Be increasingly able to talk about and manage their emotions Develop friendships with other children Learn to use the toilet with help, and independently Select and use activities and resources, with help when needed. This helps them to achieve a goal they have chosen, or one which is suggested to them. Develop their sense of responsibility and membership of a community. Show more confidence in new social situations. Increasingly follow rules, understanding why they are important. Do not always need an adult to remind them of a rule. Talk about their feelings using words like 'happy', 'sad', 'angry' or 'worried'. New friendships Transition Expressing and identifying emotions
